Pursuant to its mandate of formulating and implementing protocols, standards, activities, and guidelines in effectively communicating the Department’s policies, programs, and projects not just to its field offices but to key stakeholders as well, the Public Affairs Service (PAS) of the Central Office is strengthening the operation and initiatives of its counterparts in the regional offices through the Public Affairs Units (PAUs).

For this purpose, funds are allocated to support the PAUs in their public affairs-related activities to ensure that stakeholders at the grassroots are guided with proper information and provided with timely responses to concerns in regard to the Department's policies, programs and projects, and local issues pertinent to basic education.

2. Scope

These guidelines shall provide the rules for release, utilization, and liquidation of the Operation Support Funds to the Advocacy and Information Campaign and the Quarterly Press Conferences of PAUs in Regional Offices for CY 2019.
